MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE

2026.12.14 – 12.19 · SINGAPORE

Step into the shoes of delegates, debate real-world issues and draft resolutions to address pressing international challenges.

A Journey to Singapore, a Conversation with the World

Every December, young delegates gather in Singapore to debate real-world challenges. The conference is hosted by Global Youth Leaders' Summit (GYLS), a Singapore youth organisation. Global Youth Leadership Development Council (GYLDC) is the strategic partner for United Nations related topics. Overseas delegates can join a six-day, five-night international delegation experience.

16 simulated committees

United Nations committees and special committees cover topics spanning climate, space, medicine, and history.

400+ students

The GYLS annual convention features debates between people aged 13 to 24.

4-day official meeting

Conference: 15-18 December 2026. Venue partners: Singapore Management University (SMU) and NCS Singapore.

1 complete journey abroad

Arrived on December 14th, returned on the 19th; received assistance before and after the trip.

"”Fortune favours the bold."

Meeting Location	Singapore Management University (SMU) NCS Singapore
Participants	13-24 year old students
Committees	16 simulated committees
Organizer	GYLS

The conference is beginner-friendly: through pre-conference programmes and outreach activities, GYLS lowers the barrier to joining Model UN.

About GYLS

Launched in 2021, Global Youth Leaders' Summit (GYLS) has been an independent youth-led organisation since 2024. Its flagship event is the annual Model United Nations conference.

Leadership

Propose solutions and resolve differences in parliament; learn to compromise and take responsibility.

Service

In line with the youth initiative, volunteer and exhibition activities will be arranged before and during the meeting.

Inclusivity

This aims to lower the barriers to entry for pre-meeting projects, allowing more people to participate in diplomatic issues.

More Than a Conference

PROGRAMMES BEYOND THE CONFERENCE

Public–Foreign Policy Pipeline

Connects young people with industry, academia and government; previously held at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy and the S. Rajaratnam School of International Studies.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs × GYLS Mentorship Program

He spent years engaging in direct exchanges with diplomats and participating in thematic research and media writing.

Diplomatic Workshop

Extending from Model UN to international relations and politics, theory connects with practice.

UN International Days Commemorations

Observing UN International Days helps young people see themselves as part of the global community.

What You Will Take Away?

Debate and Negotiation

Speak, form alliances and draft resolutions under authentic rules of procedure.

Cross-cultural networks

Working alongside peers from different countries and schools.

Vision and Field

From climate debt to space governance, understanding the underlying dynamics of these issues.

Expandable growth

A complete conference experience serves as strong evidence for applications and competitions.

The certificates and awards are subject to the official announcement by the association.

16 simulated committees

Selected UN committees

ECLAC、UNODC、UNOOSA 、 WHO etc.

Selected specialised committees

The European Parliament, the Welsh Parliament, the State Duma of Russia, NATO, and the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance (COMECON) each have their own unique mechanisms.
